WARNS SHOP CRAFTS TO CONTINUE WORK

Unions Advised Against Action on Wage Cut Without Authority

COMPLAINT IS MADE

P. R. R. and Federated Shop Men Clash Over Board Ruling—Criticise Recent Ruling of R. R. Labor Board

Chicago, July 9.—Warning members of shop crafts unions on all railroads "to so conduct themselves that they will not become involved in a stoppage of work" was sent out in a circular letter from the Railway Employees' Department of the American Federation of Labor today.

The letter pointed out that the shop crafts composed only 22 per cent. of the 2,000,000 railroad employess in the country and that no action on the wage cut, which went into effect July 1, should be taken without authority of the railway employees' department "pending further advice and also pending the time when the standard recognized railroad labor organizations can arrive at the point of handling this question where concerted action by all may be taken."

A "constitutional majority" for the rejection of the wage cut was announced in the circular, although no figures were given. It was pointed out however, that "no organization or group of organizations should be expected to make a fight for the sixteen labor organizations when the fight is on a question common to each and every individual employee of all the railroads in America."

Railroad shop crafts representatives today outlined to the Railroad Labor Board their contentions that the Pennsylvania Railroad had failed to make proper efforts to meet with shop chafts employees to arrange new working rules as directed by the board.

N. P. Goode, president of the Pennsylvania System Federation Committee, stated that one of the main objections was the alleged failure of the railroad to recognize the federation committee as representing a majority of the workers.

He contended that the federation did meet with the railroad officials on May 23, but at that time their attention was called to a notice posted generally stating that the employees in mass should elect divisional regional and general committees to meet the railroad's committee. This Mr. Goode contended, did away with recognition of the shop crafts union.

Recent rulings of the United States Railroad Labor Board were criticised today by representatives of the Pennsylvania Railroad who appeared before the board to reply to allegations of the Federated Shop Crafts that the Pennsylvania had failed to make proper efforts to hold conferences and negotiations with employees for rules to replace national agreements under Federal control.

Negotiations were directed by the board in its decision. No. 119, issued April 14, 1921. In a summary of the Pennsylvania Railroad's reply, E. T. Whiter, assistant to the vice president in charge of personnel, stated that while the Pennsylvania is anxious and willing to assist the board in carrying out the Transportation act, it cannot consistently comply with the law and at the same time carry out recent rulings of the board which it regards as opposed to the law as well as the best interests of the railroads, the public and employees.

The board exceeded authority given it under the Transportation act when it continued in effect the rules, working conditions and national agreements promulgated by the United States railroad administration. Mr. Whiter said, and asserted this ruling repudiated the decision ordering railroads and employees to formulate working agreements.

He said the railroad has offered its employees a plan whereby all classes may have a voice in the management in matters affecting their welfare, through representatives of their own selection, whether union or non-union, and pointed out that the system was popular with the employees.

Submits Report

Norman Roberts President of Columbia Company—Reviews Work

To the officers and members of the Columbia Engine and Motor Co., No. 4:

Gentlemen I hereby submit this as my second quarterly report.

Doing the last quarter we have been through some tireing as well as interesting time. We have seen the reorganiaztion of two of our sister companies, as well as the election of a new chief. I am very proud to state that our company, "COLUMBIA" is still in the field of service and "ACTION." We are making great progress and the future only knows what is in store for us. The word Columbia in the past has stood for a strong organization, the present, presents not one of the strongest and largest volunteer company, but the best that is in existence today. We stand second to none. Our membership is growing rapidly. Each meeting sees the presentation of new applicants clamoring for admittance. The public as a whole recognize in us the great need for the protection of their property and as we have been termed the old reliable is certainly correct. Now gentlemen I do not believe that I quoted anything that is not true or the records will show for themselves. I wish to thank the members for their cooperation in making the company 100 per cent.

I wish to thank the committee that was in charge of our recent luncheon and congratulate them upon the nigh manner in which it was handled.

There are some reports or statistics that I will bring to your attention which I believe should cause and will be the means of each and every one taking a new lease upon the duties intrusted to them in this great responsibility of fire protection.

During the last quarter April, May and June, we responded to 28 alarms.

21 none serviceable alarms.

4 active alarms where we were forced to use water, 1800 feet of hose and 1 hour and 55 minutes service. 3 chemical alarms, 3 chemical tank and one extinguisher 122, 1-2 gallons chemical.

507 men responded for duty doing these 28 alarms averaging 20 men to the alarm. Our highest number present, 35, lowest, 15.

Total number responding to duty for the first six months of the year 1108.

Our excursion will soon be here and it is the duty of each member to push the sale of tickets. Remember they will not sell themselves. Do not wait until the last few days of the campaign to try and sell, but get busy now.

The firemen convention will be held shortly. Are you preparing to go, or will you wait until the train starts and then say, I wish I had arranged to go. Prepare now.

Yours for success,

NORMAN ROBERTS, President.

Heads Chautauqua

Baptist Pastor Is Superintendent And Lecturer

Rev. Joseph Schubert is pastor of the Baptist Church at Downington, Pa., where he is much beloved for his work's sake. In addition to his pastoral duties, he has been very successful as a lecturer. He joined the Swarthmore staff in the summer of 1920, and served with such acceptibility that he was at once engaged for as much of the current summer as his church would permit him to devote to our work. His topics are:

"Hitting the Mark."

"The Men of the Age."

"The Golden Lamp with Silver Flame."

Rev. Joseph Schubert is expected to arrive in Alexandria Monday evening and will remain here throughout Chautauqua week.

Mass Meeting Tonight

Much interest is being shown in the American Legion mass meeting to be held tonight in the Opera House The speakers are due to arrive early this afternoon, and all is in readiness for a rousing meeting. The ladies of the Women's Auxiliary to the Legion will be prepared to serve cool drinks to all.

The meeting will be opened at 8 o'clock, and will be addressed by Major Robert T. Barton, State Commander of the Legion, Dr. Kate Waller Barrett, State President of the Women's Auxiliary, and National Committeeman 'Al" Horton and "Dan" Hollenga, the "Billy Sunday" and the "Machine Gun" of the Legion.

The public is cordially invited to attend. Everybody should do his or her part in this great work of caring for the disabled veterans.

TO SUBMIT REPORT ON LUTHERAN MEET IN BALTIMORE

Hugo Herfurth, Jr., delegate of the local congregation to the Lutheran convention, to make a report to Immanuel Lutheran Church in the 11 o'clock service Sunday morning. The convention of the Eastern District of the Evangelical Lutheran Synod of Missouri, Ohio, and other states was held in St. Paul's Lutheran Church in Baltimore from the 22 to the 28 of June. Every congregation was represented by its pastor and delegate, and wherever possible the teacher of the congregational school was sent. Many important matters were taken up and discussed. Among others the gathering of funds for the building of a Lutheran Seminary—the St. Louis congregation donating over half of the land, valued at $175,00,000. The old structures, located in that city, are not up to date, unsafe, and above all not large enough to care for a student body of 300 men.

COUPLE KIDNAP CHILDREN; TAKE THEM ABOARD YACHT

Philadelphia, Pa., July 9.—Two small children of Mrs. Florence Woodland, a former Philadelphia woman, were taken away from Cape May, N. J., yesterday by a young couple. The children, Margaret, 3, and Jack 2 years old, were taken away in a motorcar, then put on board a yacht.

The yacht, it was learned from her skipper, Captain Smith, left the couple and the children at Lewes, Del. Another man was with the couple and from the description, Mrs. Woodland says, he evidently is her husband, from whom she separated a year and a half ago when they lived in this city.

Captain Smith said the party hired his yacht, telling him they were going across the bay on a pleasure trip. Mrs. Woodland had known the couple who took her children away for a month under the names of Mr. and Mrs. Henry James. She now believes James is a relative of her husband's and a meeting with her on the beach at Cape May a month ago was the beginning of a plot by her husband to gain possession of the children.

Her husband, Robert Emmett Woodland, 26, lives in Atlanta, Ga., Mrs. Woodland said, and she believes the couple have taken her children there.

The hearing of the Adams will contest case, set for trial Tuesday in the circuit court before Judge S. G. Brent, has been postponed till November 9.

SENATE LIKELY TO BURY BONUS

Poll Indicates Motion to Refer Will Have Safe Majority

PUSHES THE BILL

Democrats Oppose Its Shelving—Why Next July Was Set—Money For Other Purposes

Washington, July 9.—Administration forces were said yesterday to have progressed sufficiently with their poll of the Senate to indicate that the Soldier Bonus bill will be sent back to the Finance Committee soon after President Harding's message is received formally urging such a step.

An incomplete poll conducted by Seantor Curtis, the Republican whip, and other Senate leaders indicates that the recommittal motion will probably have 6 to 10 votes to spare The Senate Democrats will vote almost solidly against shelving the Bonus bill, but under Administration pressure the Republicans will supply the required votes.

In shelving the Bonus bill, however, it is not indicated that President Harding will get at the same time a recess of the Senate. This is desired by Administration leaders not only to check Senate oratory and opposition charges of a "donothing Congress," but also to halt action on a number of bills which are getting into preferred places on the calendar and to which the leaders are opposed.

Senator McCumber, in charge of the Soldier Bonus bill, made an extended speech yesterday, reviewing the "moral obligation" this Government owes its former soldiers and former sailors, the platform pledges held out by the two parties and the alacrity with which Congress appropriates for other things while delaying aciton on the bonus. In the end the mild-mannered Mr. McCumber made no harsh criticism of the Administration's latest attitude, but said he saw no reason why the Bonus bill should not be passed now, since it called for no money until next summer.

So far as a Senate recess is concerned, the "agricultural bloc" still appears in the saddle and either by votes or filibuster tactics this group probably will prevent any extended adjournment of that body—that is, unless it shall have passed the farmer relief legislation demanded by the agrarian group.

In his speech on the bonus yesterday Senator McCumber refered to President Harding's statement that his attitude toward the Bonus bill was long ago announced as "favorable." If that were so, said Mr. McCumber, it carried with it the assumption that Mr. Harding wanted the bill passed.

"I admit," he said, "there may be times and conditions in the country, such as the state of the Treasury, under which we may have to postpone what we all regard as just and proper obligations. We may differ as to the necessity of postponement, but that would be merely a difference of opinion—not as to the justice of the proposal. But I have heard neither President Harding nor Secretary Mellon say that July 1, 1922, is too soon for this bill to become operative and it does not become operative until that date. One reason for fixing this date was to give time for the preparation of records for 4,000,000 soldiers and to give them time to exercise the options of the Bonus bill."

Senator McCumber suggested there should be no partisanship in Congress over the bonus or anything else "until we can get this country on its feet." He was a "party man," he observed, but the bonus was one of that realm. Insisting that Congress should act on the bonus now Senator McCumber said he believed Secretary Mellon had given undue weight to the possible effect of such action on the price of Liberty bonds and the adjustment of the foreign loans.

"There is not a penny of additional expense to the Government under this Bonus bill during the year 1921," he said, "and not a penny of expense before July 1, 1922. Secretary Mellon has indicated to prospective deficit for the fiscal year beginning on the latter late and ending June 30, 1923, and the operative date of the Bonus bill was fixed to avoid possible deficits in the fiscal years of 1921 and 1922.

"Despite the pleas of the President and the Secretary of the Treasury that we not enter upon any new fields of expenditure, Congress has mercilessly swept aside their advice and appropriated millions and hundred of millions for new fields of governmental enterprise. It seems Congress is determined to spend every cent that can be raised by taxation or otherwise, and it becomes a question whether we shall lay aside many things which we could postpone

Chautauqua Parade

Fifty Children Participate in Event Today

Fifty-four children took part in the Junior Chautauqua Lucky Number Parade which took place this morning Promptly at nine o'clock the children who had assembled at Lee School Building were arranged in line by W. A. Sawyers, an advance representative of Chautauqua, Miss Leslie Cox, and Mrs. E. E. Carver, members of the Alexandria Junior Chautauqua Committee. The parade was headed by two boys proudly bearing the large banner which Alexandria's Junior Chautauquans won last year, then followed decorated cars, bicyeles, express wagons, a pony cart a fire truck of the small variety, and many children in costumes of all kinds. Charlie Chaplin, Indians, Spanish and Gypsy girls were all represented. Miss Virginia Dare, dressed prettily in yellow and riding her wheel which was artistically decorated with yellow daisies, was awarded on eof the single admission tickets, which were offered to those children who attracted special attention. Three other single admissions were given Malcolm, Clement and Evelyn Moore, who with their express wagon decorated in patriotic fashion, depicted a wounded soldier boy being attended by Red Cross nurse. Everet Murphy, also, with his fire truck was considered worthy of this special award.

After the parade which followed down King street to St. Asaph, up St. Asaph to Cameron, west on Cameron to Columbus, south on Columbus to King and hence back to Lee School, members were distributed to all children participating and the six lucky ones were chosen by lot as follows: Erwin Brooks, Viola Creel, Helen Myers, Walter Drury, Gladys Plaispoint, and Barbara Caton.

The Juniors are eagerly looking forward to their first meeting with the Junior Superintendent which will be next Monday afternoon directly after the first session of Chautauqua.

VIRGINIA NEWS

Richmond—Business is booming again in Richmond, prices show a marked decline, and a most optimistic view of the future is reported by practically all local business houses. Collections are good in the business houses and the record for the Fifth Ditrict of the Federal Reserve Bank shows the number of business failures strikingly lower than for any month this year.

Winchester—The body of Major Lloyd W. Williams, killed three years ago while leading his men in a charge at Beleau Wood, has arrived at Berryville, Clarke county, and will be reinterred early next week. A military funeral will be held from the man for whom the Lloyd Williams Post, American Legion, was named. The body wil lie in state in Grace Episcopal Church until the funeral hour, and during the obsequies all places of business will be closed.

According to a statement prepared by the Richmond chamber of commerce, the Virginia capital is the biggest shoe center in the south Figures ar, given to show that shoes to the value of $10,000,000 are sold out of Richmond annually, at least $6,000,000 of which business is credited to Richmond jobbers.

In the circuit court for this city today the will of Eva Bower dated May 8, 1919, was admitted to probate. Testatrix leaves her entire estate to Stephen Davis and he qualified as executor.

Candidates Night

Frank Stuart Wants Candidates to Hold Get Together Meet

The various candidates interested in the local municipal elections including the candidates for the Legislature from the County have been requested to meet at the office of Frank Stuart, 119 South Fairfax St., at 8.15 p. m., tonight, for the purpose of staging in this city what is known as "Candidate's Night." The idea is to assemble the voters at some central point, and have the various candidates state their policies and platforms and discuss the issues involved in the contest for the various offices. The idea is not altogether a novel one, but has been in vogue throughout the state for a number of years. The voters of the present day are interested in knowing just how the candidates stand, in order that they may vote intelligently. All candidates are expected to be present, in order to determine the best method of staging "Candidate's Night."

MAN SHOOTS HIMSELF AFTER BATTLING POLICE

New York, July 9.—While Bloomfield, N. J., police and firemen surrounded the house in which he had barricaded himself, John Gruchacz committed suicide this afternoon, by sending a bullet into his right temple Before that he had fired 12 shots among besieging firemen and policemen, all of whom escaped being hit.

Gruchacz had isolated himself in a small one story building in which Mrs. Caroline Gruchacz his wife, kept a dry goods store. She lived in a room in the back of the store with her 8 month old baby girl. The pair had been separated some time.

It is believed that he intended to kill his wife, as when she escaped through the back door she left behind a pocketbook containing several hundred dollars and about $8 in change in a drawer. The money was not disturbed.

TRUCE IN ERIN IS AGREED UPON

De Valera to go to London to Discuss Situation With Lloyd George

TO END MONDAY

Commander of Crown Forces in Ireland Confers With Republican Chieftains—Smut Takes Hand

London, July 9.—Events moved swiftly today both in London and Dublin. Not only has Mr. de Valera, contrary to the general expectation, consented to come to London to discuss with Mr. Lloyd George the basis on which settlement of the Irish question might be reached by the Prime Minister's proposed London conference but a truce has been arranged to begin at noon Monday.

Preparations already are under way to end hostilities between the Crown forces and those engaged in the Irish cause.

This has given reasonable assurance that the original conference, to which the Prime Minister invited the Irish Republican leader and Sir James Craig, the Ulster Premier, will be held.

Developments leading to the truce were divided between London and Dublin. In Dublin Eamonn de Valera, Irish Republican leader, and his Nationalist associates renewed their conference with the Southern Unionists. Earl Midleton, a Unionist, who recently conferred with the British Prime Minister, read a letter from Mr. Lloyd George to the effect that hostilities must cease if negotiations looking to peace were to succeed.

Gen. Sir Nevil MacReady, British military commander in Ireland, appeared at the De Valera conference, and it was not many hours later that the announcement was made at the Prime Minister's official residence in London that, in accordance with the Premier's offer and Mr. de Valera's reply, arrangements were going forward for cessation of hostilities from Monday noon.

The King of England has been a leading figure in the developments up to the present, while General Smuts, the South African Premier, has acted as the pivot on which the peace movement has turned. There is hope in London, and in Dublin, too, that peace must come out of the forces which are now engaged in seeking a settlement.

The day started hopefully with the King summoning the Ulster Premier to a conference at Buckingham Palace. This, following upon the King's conference yesterday with Gen. Jan Christian Smuts, the South African Premier, is an indication of the intense interest the King is taking in the Irish problem, and, although under the traditions of the British Constitution the King has no real voice in the direction of government affairs, that does not prevent his exercising great influence in the policy of the country.

General Smuts is going to Chequers Court to spend the week-end, together with the other Premiers of the overseas dominions, and Mr. Lloyd George. General Smuts evidently is the influence in the negotiations, perhaps something more than mere influence, for, lacking his active aid, it is hardly conceivable that events could have progressed as rapidly as they did today, and the fact that the Prime Minister has not stood upon the dignity of his office, but seemingly is willing to discuss with Mr. De Valera the basis for a general conference is considered full of hopefulness.

No report of the proceedings of Mr. De Valera's conference with the Southern Unionists has yet been issued, but it is believed that the principal topic discussed was a truce and that Eamonn Duggan, a Sinn Fein member of Parliament who was released from Mount Joy Prison only a few days ago, acted as intermediary between the conference and the Sinn Fein leaders.

Opinion still inclines to the idea that General Smuts, owing to the important part he has taken in the preliminary negotiations, will be the first chairman of the London conference.

Napoleon, Webster, Calhoun

In today's News from the Gazette, 108 years ago, we are able to give a glimpse of events stirring at that period that have passed into history as epoch-making, and of names that glitter among the eternal constellations of Fame. Mr. Webster and Mr. Calhoun, two of the mightiest intellects produced by America, for once seem to be in accord on the consideration of a remonstrance from the Massachusetts legislature. Mr. King, of North Carolina, scarcely less noted, concurs with both his fellow-members.

Apparently a well-known Virginia publicist, who signs himself "Virginius," is writing a series of letters, probably imitating the mysterious Junius of English literature, addressed to President Madison. We print to-day an extract from his second letter which speaks of Napoleon's retreat from Moscow; of his famous decree of blockade in all European ports, aimed at English commerce; and of the Emperor Alexander, the one time friend and admirer of Bonaparte, but later, his bitter foe. All these matters are treated of as contemporary or recent events of that day. Especially interesting is the view point of Virginius as to Napoleon; this was probably the attitude of most Americans of that day—and, although even then at war with England for the second time—was a reflection of British sentiment.

We invite special attention to the column that appears daily in the GAZETTE, giving quotations from its pages 108 years ago—or during the war of 1812—so-called. We can promise events of absorbing interest; duels, political feuds, European history—and notably, the last days of the waning star of Napoleon just previous to his exile to Elba.

No other paper in the United States can boast of so great an antiquity of descent as the GAZETTE; no other paper can so truthfully say of the great events which it chronicled: quorum pars fui!—At its masthead it bore the daily legend,—"to shew the very age and body of the time, his form and pressure.'

The GAZETTE in the old days was no pussy-foot in its advocacy of men and measures it believed to be right. It was absolutely fearless and kept its powder dry!

CONGRESS

House of Representatives

(Reported for the Alexandria Gazette)

Mr. Fisk, of Vermont, after some preliminary observations, called for the consideration of the remonstrance of the Legislature of Massachusetts. The question on considering was taken by ayes and noes, and was, yeas, 97, nays, 58.

MR. WEBSTER was opposed to a partial reference—he was not anxious it should be acted on at all this session—but he did not know how a selection could well be made. It had been said it was intended the committee should give an answer to this remonstrance; if so, he believed it necessary the whole subject should go to them.

MR. KING, of N. C., moved that the further consideration of this subject be postponed till the first Monday of December next.

MR. CALHOUN was in favor of postponement. He considered it unnecessary and impolitic to act on this subject at this time; if an answer was given, the very next Legislature of that state would reply, and thus this business might go on ad infinitum.

LETTER FROM VIRGINIUS. No. II.

To the President of the U. States:

.....That France aims at the overthrow of the British constitution by exciting internal distress and commotion as the surest means to subjugate her habitual enemy, is evident to all and admitted by all. For this grand end the EMPEROR NAPOLEON ordained and published his system, as novel in itself as it has been impracticable, which passes under the name of the CONTINENTAL SYSTEM. By this are excluded British ships and everything the growth, product or manufacture of any of the British dominions from the ports of France and OF ALL EUROPE.

.....To endorse it on the Russian Empire NAPOLEON at the head of the most numerous army which for centuries has been collected, made his way to Moscow. Undismayed, the Russian Potentate sent his armies to meet and fight this CONQUEROR of PRINCES AND DESTROYER OF COUNTRIES. They did meet and fight him, and by their superiority in valor, in discipline, and in skill, and above all, animated by their religion and the goodness of their cause, they have set an immortal example before the world, how an invaded nation should protect itself. From the scenes of war the invader fled with incredible speed, and sought refuge under the walls of Paris. Of his mighty army, who are now living, or who are captive, or who are dead, none can tell, nor can the IGNOMINIOUS FUGITIVE tract the route of his rapid flight.

"The recent rulings of the board evidently tend to defeat the efforts of the Pennsylvania Railroad to reach a mutually satisfactory agreement with its employees under which we may all live together and operate the railroad in the interest of the public as well as in the interest of the employees," he charged.

"The Pennsylvania Railroad has always treated its men fairly," Mr. Whiter concluded, and stated no better proof of this was needed than the record of success that has attended the Pennsylvania's recent negotiations.

"There will be no interruption of traffic under such circumstances, and harmonious relations will be re-established if this board in its desire to avoid misunderstandings does not interfere with honest efforts of the railroads to get together and continue to live together with their own men."

CITY NEWS IN BRIEF

A delightful and well attended dance was given last night at the club house of the Old Dominion Boat Club

A large number of the Old Dominion Boat Club members will spend the week end in camps along the river.

Don't forget the big vaudeville for the play grounds tonight at the Young Peoples' Building, 50 and 25 cents.

Mr. Thomas Moncure, of George Washington Park, left this morning for Philadelphia, where he will spend a few days with friends.

Rev. Dr. John L. Allison will have as his morning subject, "A Character Sketch of Paul" Evening subject, evangelistic.

The Philathea Bible Class will meet tomorrow morning in their rooms at the First Bapist Church. All women are cordially invited to attend.

There will be an important meeting of the Board of Directors of the Chamber of Commerce at the Chamber of Commerce rooms Monday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock.

Mrs. D. Mauchlin Niven is now visiting friends in Westchester county, New York. She will go from there to Long Island and will return to her home on Braddock Heights about August first.

Chautauqua tickets—Any one desiring Chautauqua tickets can obtain the same by calling at Gibson's Timberman's or Rexall Drug Stores Season tickets cannot be purchased after Monday, July 11, 1921.

Last night at the Chamber of Commerce rooms, the Retail Credit Men's Association of the Retail Merchants' Bureau met with eleven of its fifteen members present. Important work along the line of credits was taken up and so much work was found that the meeting did not close until eleven o'clock.

SPORTS

The teams of the two Baptist Churches played yesterday afternoon the result being another victory for the First Baptists and another defeat for the team of the Second Baptists This game put the team of the First Baptist Sunday School back at the head of the list, from which place the Trinity team pushed them Thursday.

The next game of the league will be played on next Wednesday, July 12, between the teams of the Southern Methodist and First Baptist Churches.

Stanidng of the clubs:

	W.	L.	Pct.
First Baptists	4	2	666
Trinity	5	3	625
M. E. S.	4	3	571
Second Baptist	1	6	166

The Destroyer A. C., has a game scheduled with the Warwick A. C. tomorrow on the High School grounds. The Destroyers have had considerable difficulty in getting teams to come to Alexandria this year. This team will positively put in an appearance tomorrow as the management of the D's sent a representative of the team over last night to see the manager of Warwicks, and he reports that they will have their best lineup on the field tomorrow. The Warwicks have won ten games without a loss. The Destroyers started the season like big leaguers, winning six straight and ran up against the Aztec Club which set them back. They have now lost six straight games, but tomorrow they hope to break their losing streak. So if you want to see a good baseball game, go to the High School tomorrow at 1:30 p. m. Game will be over before Dreadnaught's game starts.

Forget All About The Usual

Wash day is the one day in the week that is almost universally dreaded and hated by the housewife.

And especially is this true during the hot summer months.

We are in a position to take away the trials of wash day and ironing day and still guarantee your laundry work to be as fresh and clean as if you had washed it yourself.

SPECIAL ATTENTION TO
Finish Family Wash

We wash and iron the entire lot by the pound and return it to you neatly for immediate use.

BUICK

Authorized Buick Service — Emblem of Satisfaction

BUICK predominance among business men means but one thing—Buick is absolutely dependable. It has proved its dependability for twenty years.

You don't need to try out a Buick for dependability. That is universally known. But you should try out a Buick to realize its comfort, its power, how easy it is to operate. There's real pleasure in driving a Buick.

WALLACE REID IN
"What's Your Hurry?"

"Get out of the way!" he answered. "That dam's bursting and I'm going to stop it!"
And on he plunged with his crew in their lurching motor trucks — roaring through the storm—digging their way through the mountains — rushing life to a thousand women and children.
But the dam had broken!
And then this "worthless" racing driver did something that brought the girl who had scorned him sobbing to his arms!

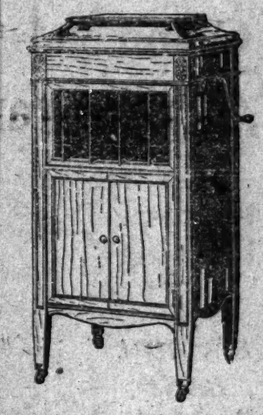
THE COLUMBIA



GRAFONOLA is the phonograph PLUS. It has all the advantageous features of every other sound-reproducing instrument plus many exclusive advantages which place it in a class by itself—beyond the bounds of competition.

Play on the Columbia Grafonola a Columbia Record by a great opera star, a master violinist, a symphony orchestra, a popular comedian, a band, a dance orchestra, or any combination of voices or instruments, and what do you get?

EXACT REPRODUCTIONS.

You get exact reproductions of the music the artists themselves produced on the original wax in the Columbia laboratories—nothing more and nothing less. The new Columbia process of recording makes it certain that nothing is lost when the record is made. The Grafonola's scientific construction insures that nothing is lost when the record is played. You get every word, note, intonation, mannerism, and musical inflection when you play a Columbia Record on the Columbia Grafonola.

The Grafonola's reproductions not only give you every feature and aspect of the original music, but they give them to you with unaltered purity. There is nothing in the Grafonola's construction designed to and anything to its reproductions.

ELOPEMENT FRUSTRATED, GIRL WIFE TAKES POISON

Buffalo, July 9.—Mrs. Gladys Barringer, 18 years old, of Olean, is in a serious condition suffering from the effects of poison alleged to have been taken with suicidal intent after her father had the police had frustrated a sensational attempt to elope with a lover.

According to the police, Mrs. Barringer has recently been involved with her husband and her parents over the attention of a suitor named John Burke. Their efforts, however, were without avail and the elopement was planned yesterday afternoon. Mrs. Barringer, according to the police, obtained her father's car and turned it over to Burke directing him to meet her just outside the city.

Mrs. Barringer then returned home, packed her clothes and took her baby. In the meantime the parent learned of the disappearance of his car and notified the police. They came upon Mrs. Barringer and her baby when she was within a short distance of Burke, waiting in the car, with the engine running.

The woman made a dash for the car and the man, seeing the danger of her capture, started forward. The father and the police were wininng the race and the woman, seeing that her capture was inevitable, tossed her baby in the passing car and then swallowed the poison. The man did not stop. The police are searching for him and the child.

HUGHES STANDS ON POLICY OF OPEN DOOR IN CHINA

Washington, July 9.—Secretary of State Hughes, in a note to the Chinese Minister made public today on protests of Great Britain, Japan and Denmark, against the erection of a wireless station in China by the Federal Telegraph Company, reaffirms adherence by the United States to the principle of the open door in China, and insists that protests of foreign Governments are founded on monopolistic or preferential rights. The Federal Telegraph Company is an American concern.

pone or lay aside the moral obligation which we attempt to pay in this bonus legislation."

Senator McCumber read accounts of the proposed $500,000,000 advance to the railroads and declared "no one has been scared by that." Reading over a list of expenditures required under several pending measures such as the Townsend Road bill and the Norris Farm Export bill, Senator McCumber asked "why hasn't the Secretary of the Treasury looked upon these with concern."

"There is ample opportunity to reduce our expenditures enough to take care of any annual payments under this bill," he asserted.

Senator McCumber concluded with the advice that the Senate pass the Bonus bill at once and send it back to the House for a conference, the House having been in a hurry to get it to the Senate as far back as 1920.

Absolute Protection

Many people think that when their lives are fully insured they have absolute protection.

They never stop to think that life insurance is a proposition that only benefits the family of a man after his death. They fail to consider property protection while they are living and have good health.

Absolute protection can only be attained by judicious placing of fire insurance and this must be extended to cover a number of other possibilities of accidents that may happen to perhaps your choicest possessions.

And together with the placing of this insurance, be sure to choose a company that is nationally known and that is cared for locally by a firm of insurance men with a local reputation.

Let us tell you, at any time, how you can protect your home, your business building, your household furniture, your automobile or your life.

We can guarantee you compensation in case either of these fall a victim to the greedy flame, or in case of theft of your automobile—an accidental collision with a human being—and relieve you of all liability in any event.

Just Call us and We Will be Glad to Send a Representative to Talk This Matter Over With You at Any Time

SENATE ADOPTS BILL TO PLEASE MAN THOUGHT DYING

Washington, July 9.—A House resolution changing the name of the Grand River in Colorado and Utah to the Colorado River was adopted today by the Senate. It now goes to the President.

Urging immediate action, Senator Nicholson, Republican, Colorado, told the Senate that the author of the resolution, Representative Taylor, Democrat, Colorado, was, he feared, on his death bed, and hoped to see the resolution enacted.

even if Mr. Lloyd George presides during the later stages, as would be almost inevitable if constitutional questions were under discussion.

Another matter that has been widely discussed today, arising out of the visit of the Secretary for War, Sir Laming Worthington Evans, to the King yesterday, was the possibility that the military evacuation of Ireland is under consideration. This, it is recalled, has been advocated by many prominent statesmen, including Viscount Grey, former Secretary for Foreign Affairs. In view of General Macready's attendance at the Dublin conference it is believed not impossible that such development is actually under advisement.

King George, accompanied by Queen Mary, attended the opening of the Ulster Parliament on June 22. The King, in an urgent plea for peace in Ireland and conciliation between the people of that country and the Empire urged the Irish to forgive and forget.

"I appeal to all Irishmen," said the King, "to pause, to stretch out the hand of forbearance and conciliation, to forgive and to forget and to join in making for the land which they love a new era of peace, contentment and good will."

This was the first impelling force of the present progressive movement. It was followed a few days later by an invitation from the British Prime Minister to Esmonn de Valera, the Irish Republic leader and Sir James Craig, the Ulster Premier, to attend a conference at London to discuss a settlement.

The British Government, Mr. Lloyd George declared, was deeply anxious that the King's appeal for reconciliation in Ireland should not have been made in vain. This invitation was accepted by Sir James Craig, but the Premier's proposal was declared by Mr. de Valera to be impossible of acceptance in the form in which it had been received. In his reply to the Prime Minister on June 28, Mr. De Valera said:

"We most earnestly desire to help in bringing about a lasting peace between the peoples of these two islands but see no avenue by which it can be reached if you deny Ireland essential unity."

The Republican leader added that he was consulting with representatives of the Irish people and would later give a definite answer to the invitation.

General Smuts about this time jumped into the breach and on a flying visit to Dublin conferred lengthily with Mr. de Valera and his associates. The nature of the discussions has not been disclosed as to details, but in a public statement a day or two ago General Smuts was moved to say that the Irish question was a soluble problem. What is needed for settlement was a better atmosphere.

"If we all help to create a better atmosphere and are determined to wipe out what is really a stain on the Empire's record," he declared, "we shall succeed."

"The Advantage of a Handicap

You didn't know there was such a thing, did you? It sounds impossible, but that is what Mr. Elliott A. Boyl, the lecturer of the opening night at Chautauqua, will explain. And he will explain it in such a way that if you haven't a handicap you will wish you had one on account of the advantages it would bring to you.

Newspaper reports in other towns paint a glowing picture of Mr. Boyl's ability as an orator. They say his wit is incisive, his word painting most colorful, and his common sense diagnosis of his subject extremely helpful to his auditors.

Not the least attractive characteristic of Mr. Boyl's lecture is his collection of really new humorous stories, and he tells them with that ability which marks a born storyteller; and Mr. Boyl's stories, humorous in themselves, aptly illustrate the points of his lecture.

He will open a week of strong lectures.

COULD NOT KEEP HOUSE

Without Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, Says Mrs. Pitts of Newburgh

Newburgh, N. Y.—"My trouble was a weak back and I could not walk two blocks without being tired out. I read of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound in a newspaper and decided to give it a trial. Now I can do my own work and walk with ease. I always keep the Vegetable Compound in the house. It certainly is my best friend and I could not keep house without it. I have recommended it to many and always shall. You may use this letter if you wish."—Mrs. EDWARD PITTS, 2 High St., Newburgh, N. Y.

It has been said that "backache is an invention of the Evil One to try women's souls," but even so, it is more often a symptom of a female trouble which sooner or later declares itself. Day after day it drags a woman down and night after night prevents restful sleep. Such woman should follow Mrs. Pitt's advice and try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and regain health. Letters about your health will be given careful attention and held in strict confidence if you write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass. Their experience of over 40 years is at your service.

GOOD NEWS

Many Alexandria Readers Have Heard It and Profited Thereby

"Good news travels fast," and the many bad back sufferers in Alexandria are glad to learn where relief may be found. Many a lame, weak and aching back is bad no more, thanks to Doan's Kidney Pills. Our citizens are telling the good news of their experience with this tested remedy. Ask your neighbor! Here is an example worth reading:

Mrs. C. E. Poole, 1600 King St., Alexandria, says: "My back felt as though something heavy were pulling me down, and the pain was terrible at night. I was in such misery I would roll from side to side, but got no relief. I thought those pains in the small of my back would drive me wild. Headaches made me nervous and the least noise would irritate me. I often got so dizzy everything would turn black in front of me. I used Doan's Kidney Pills and the backaches, headaches and dizzy spells left me and I got over my nervousness. Doan's gave me the relief."

Price 60c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Poole had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs. Buffalo, N. Y.

CITIZENS MILITARY TRAINING CAMP FOR VIRGINIANS

Camp Meade, Maryland, August, 1921
A Proclamation by the Governor of Virginia

WHEREAS, Provision has been made by the War Department to give military instruction in special training camps to 10,800 physically fit citizens of the United States, between the ages of 16 and 35 years, to be drawn from the several States in proportion to population; and

WHEREAS, The quota allotted to the State of Virginia will enable two hundred and twenty-five of our qualified citizens to receive thirty days military training at the expense of the United States during the month of August, 1921, at Camp Meade, Maryland; and

WHEREAS, Attendance upon these Citizen's Military Training Camps by the requisite number of Virginians will be helpful in building up a trained personnel for the Virginia National Guard, and will be of great personal benefit to those taking the prescribed courses, irrespective of whether they become members of the National Guard or not; now

THEREFORE, Westmoreland Davis, Governor of Virginia, do hereby heartily endorse and commend the plan of the War War Department to conduct Citizen's Military Training Camps, and I urge all citizens of Virginia, who are eligible, at once to make application for admission to the Citizen's Military Training Camp for the Third Corps Area, to be held at Camp Meade, Maryland, during the month of August, 1921, in order that they may receive training fitting them for immediate active service in the Virginia National Guard, and in the Army of the United States in the event of a National emergency.

Address applications for admission from Virginia to the Citizens Military Training Camp to be held at Camp Meade to the Adjutant General of Virginia, at Richmond.

Given under my hand and under the Lesser Seal of the Commonwealth, at Richmond, this twenty-fifth day of June, in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and twenty-one, and in the one hundred and forty-fifth year of the Commonwealth.

Westmoreland Davis, Governor.

KELVINATOR
REFRIGERATION WITHOUT ICE

Kelvinator is an electrically operated home refrigerating unit. It fits neatly into the ice compartment of any standard refrigerator doing away entirely with the use of ice as a cooling medium.

Kelvinator is the modern mechanical substitute for ice the ice you have for years used in your refrigerator. Ordinarily one thinks of a substitute as something inferior to the original article. The cold produced by Kelvinator is superior in all points to that of ice. Kelvinator cold is a dry, crisp cold, free from the contamination of ice ponds, wagons and dusty street.

Automatically controlled, it keeps food at a steady refrigerating temperature, and at a daily cost of less than ice.

Kelvinator once installed requires no raw materials in its operation. The one thing necessary to Kelvinate your food and to supply your table with cakes of pure clean ice, is electric current and that is a small amount.

Kelvinator relieves you of one more household responsibility—the responsibility of watching your ice supply.

WHAT KELVINATOR DOES

Goes into the ice chamber of your own refrigerator.

Modernizes the home supplying mechanical refrigeration instead of ice.

Keeps your refrigerator colder than ice.

Keeps your refrigerator at a constant unfluctuating temperature—prevents the decay of foods.

Produces a dry, crisp cold. Melting ice keeps the refrigerator damp.

Prevents contamination from impure ice. All delivered ice is subject to contamination.

Reduces daily cost of refrigeration.

Produces cakes of pure, clear ice for table use, from your drinking water.

Operates by electricity alone—requires no water connections.

Operates automatically—starting and stopping as cold is required.

Makes you master of your own ice box.
